1. Though this matter is mentioned for circulation, I have heard both sides and I feel that the matter can be disposed of. The application challenges the order passed by the Special Judge for CBI in Misc.Application No.558/2004 in special case no.37/2003 dismissing the M.A.558/2004. The said Misc.Application was filed by the present applicant for permission to go abroad for a business tour between 15.12.2004 to 15.2.2005.

It is obvious that the said period have been elapsed. This application cannot be allowed. It is however, made clear that in case the applicant wishes to go abroad during such future period for certain compelling reasons, he will be at liberty to make such an application and after hearing the other side, the same may be decided on its own merits. If and when permission is granted by the Special Court, liberty to apply to the Addl.Chief Metropolitan Magistrate for permission to travel. With this direction, application stands disposed of.
